

APPLICATION TO DOWNLOAD AND USE PACI INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Preamble:

Many years of consultation, in-field verification, research and funding have been invested in the development of the PACI exams and learning resources. Intensive and ongoing efforts are made to produce some of the world’s finest documents on the subject area of knots and fall protection systems.

All content authored by PACI and Mark Gommers is subject to international copyright and intellectual property laws. Licencing fees automatically apply for any commercial use, business use, or for any type of organisation that will profit from the use of PACI and/or Mark Gommers intellectual property (hereinafter PACI).

For situations where it is clear that it is for personal/individual use only – and for enrichment of knowledge and understanding, we may decide to grant you the privilege of private use. Any attempts to circumvent document password protection or to obfuscate the original copyright owner by any means is an offence under international laws. Unauthorised distribution or hosting of PACI intellectual property also violates international copyright laws.
